NOTE FOR:

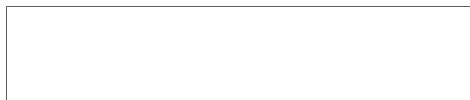

Charlie:

The attached letter from Denver is self-explanatory. If you can provide me with the answers to Hatcher's questions I will be happy to pass them along. If you prefer to deal directly, be my guest.

I should think the Admiral would very much want to attend the Playhouse since the title of the show is a line he uses many times a day!

Dear Mr. Hetu:

Thanks for your note, the biographies and photos of Admiral Turner. As soon as our programs are printed I will send you several copies.

As I indicated, Admiral Turner is scheduled to speak during the morning session on August 1. In order that we may secure appropriate hotel accommodations for him, we need to know his arrival and departure dates and whether or not he will be accompanied by Mrs. Turner. We would naturally like for them to attend the entire Conference which will begin with a social hour and reception on Wednesday, July 30, at 6:30 P.M. and end with a speech by Associate Justice Byron White at approximately noon, Friday, August 1.

On Thursday evening, July 31, we have reserved all seats at the Country Dinner Playhouse where we will have dinner and watch the musical, "Where's Charlie." If possible, we would like for Admiral and Mrs. Turner to attend this event as our guests.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely yours,

Emory G. Hatcher
